

Guiding Principles

1. Recognize that patron service is the ultimate goal of LBWCC Libraries/Learning Resource Center activities.
2. Strive toward flexibility, efficiency and effectiveness in meeting patron needs, whether planning services, applying regulations, providing resources, or some other activity.
3. Acquire and preserve recorded knowledge for future generations as well as provide tools for ongoing teaching and research.
4. Respect individual patrons and guard their right to privacy.
5. Aim for an internal working environment that is pleasant and productive.
6. Participate in inter-library cooperation in both the spirit of sharing information and in making most efficient use of finances and other sources.
7. Recognize and support the college and its concerns within the larger educational framework.
