Library Orientations

- Formal orientation sessions are offered regarding the use of print and non-print materials and the electronic databases as well as the other services offered by the LBWCC Libraries/Learning Resource Center.
- Faculty members are encouraged to make arrangements to bring classes to the LBWCC Libraries/Learning Resource Center for orientation sessions.
- The LBWCC Libraries/Learning Resource Center requests that notification be given at least 24 hours in advance.
- Community groups must schedule appointments one week in advance.
- New faculty members are encouraged to come by the LBWCC Libraries/Learning Resource Center to familiarize themselves with the resources that are available.
- Faculty may send small groups to the LBWCC Libraries/Learning Resource Center for research purposes without an appointment, although notification would be appreciated.
- Point-of-use instruction is offered on a one-on-one basis to students who are having difficulty locating needed materials in the LBWCC Libraries/Learning Resource Center.
